

The following information sheet is one of three currently being compiled from daily discussions on the Greyhound-L listserv. These three info sheets (GH Medical, GH General Info, and GH Resources/Supplies) are unofficial compilations - in other words, these are my *pet projects* as opposed to official FAQ files. I maintain and update these info sheets as new information crosses my e-mail account. I accept any and all updates, comments, corrections, and additions to these info sheets: please send mail to greyhoundadmin@abap.org

All data is provided as **information only**. The greyhound-l list server is made up of a large group of Greyhound owners - some with limited experience, and some with EXTENSIVE experience - who meet on a computer forum to discuss Greyhounds and Greyhound related topics. I try to collect interesting data on various topics, and reflect a group consensus or varied cross-sections of thought on those topics.

All of the data in these infosheets is Copyright to the Original author on the Greyhound-L. I have been given permission to compile and publish this data by the authors. This infosheet can be reproduced *in full*, and distributed. If you wish to use any one part of this info sheet (i.e., a newsletter), you must contact me for author permission.

GREYHOUND RESOURCE/SUPPLY INFORMATION

Last Update 2/5/99

CALENDAR:

Produced and published yearly by The Greyhound Project, Inc., 261 Robbins Street, Milton, Mass. 02186, (617) 333-4982 or (617) 527-8843.

The Greyhound Project is a volunteer non-profit organization providing information about and promoting the adoption of retired racing greyhounds. The purpose includes promoting cooperation between and among greyhound adoption program to further the placement of greyhounds at the end of their racing careers. Profits from the sale of the Greyhound Calendar are sent to the greyhound adoption agency of the purchaser's choice.

Color photos of greyhounds being submitted for consideration for inclusion in the calendar should be submitted by May for the next year. Late submissions will be held for consideration in the following year. The Greyhound Project also publishes a newsletter for adoption groups.

GREYHOUND STAMPS:

These brightly colored "stamps", kind of like Easter Seal stamps, brighten up your letters and carry a greyhound message. They are published by The Greyhound Protection League, P.O. Box 60715, Palo Alto, CA 94306, (415)327-0631, in sheets of 32 2" wide by 1.25" high stamps for $1.00 a sheet. No two stamps on a sheet are alike. Profits from the sale of these stamps go back into greyhound rescue and adoption.

POSTER:

This black and white poster, which is sponsored by the Greyhound Protection League, is available for purchase by the general public. It features a fantastic picture of the sweetest little Greyhound you will ever see.(besides your own, of course : )

The text of the poster is:

"Casinos, a Greyhound-safe bet", with a spiel on the right hand side about casinos vs. racing.

To get a copy, contact:

Karen Wolfe

P.O. Box 958672

Hoffman Estates IL 60195-8672

Or call:

(708) 882-2188 after 5 p.m. Illinois time for ordering info.

Re: GPLeague's Casino Poster

Each poster is $2.00 +shipping.

PEDIGREES:

To find out the lineage of your ex-racer, five generations back:

Send a letter & a $15.00 check to:

NGA Pedigree Service

Box 543

Abilene, KS 67410

In the text of the letter, include the tattoo #'s found in both of your dogs ears, its sex, color, and racing name if you know it.

In return, the NGA will send you a nice pedigree.

You can also simply call the NGA, and (for free) find out the names of both the Sire and Dam of your Greyhound, the birth date of your Greyhound, your Greyhounds racing name, as well as who the owner was. (913)263-4660.

You can also contact the NGA nga@jc.net

ANOTHER PEDIGREE OPTION:

I will be offering a 15x37 inch, 8 generation chart with your dogs registered name at the bottom plus his registration numbers, your name and address and a space for you to place a photo of him. These charts include 255 names per chart so I think you'll have fun linking up your fur friend with some of the Greys of the past. Cost will be $40, and the chart, due to its size, will be hand lettered.

I will also be doing a much fancier pedigree which will have on one side the pedigree and a watermark picture of either your dog or another greyhound symbol. On the reverse, I plan to scan a color or b/w print of your dog, all of the information about him, including tattoos or microchip numbers, and identifying marks, etc. This will be a sheet that you can use in case he is lost or stolen, or--for the AKC types--in case the AKC comes calling to inspect your kennels. I will contribute a portion of the proceeds to rescue.

BOOKS:

Brannigan, C., Adopting the Racing Greyhound, Howell, 1992. Chapter 5 is on Care and Feeding. The quickest overview of GH nutrition, obviously geared towards the retired racer. Probably the BEST place to start.

BOOK OUTLINES GREYHOUND CARE, MEDICINE

By David Stauth, 503-737-0787

SOURCE: Linda Blythe, 503-737-6945

CORVALLIS - Veterinary researchers at Oregon State University (OSU) have published a comprehensive new book on greyhound medicine.

Kohnke J., Veterinary Advice for Greyhound Owners, Ringpress, 1993. Chapter 2 is on Nutrition. This is in a Q&A format, mostly for working dogs.

Barnes, J., ed. Complete Book of Greyhounds, Howell, 1994. (I'm told by my friends at Greyhound & Whippet Shop in London, this is not available in the UK as of yet, but it should be soon; the copyright is held by Ringpress out of Hertfordshire.) Chapter 3 is on Feeding and Nutrition, Chp. 14 General Health Care. Good general overview of GH nutrition.

Blythe, L., Gannon, J., Craig, A.M., Care of the Racing Greyhound, American Greyhound Council, 1994. Chapter 8 is Digestive System and Nutrition, Chp. 16 is Metabolic Disorders. This is probably the most comprehensive, concise reference on GH nutrition. If you want to know more than what's in this book, you probably should become a vet.

All About the Racing Greyhound, Tompkins & Heasman (Pelham, 1988)

There is also an excellent book by H. Edwards Clarke with a title a can't recall that gives an excellent history of the breed, especially the show/coursing schism of the 1890s and the track/ coursing schism of the 1930s.

The Modern Greyhound by H. Edwards Clarke. London: Hutchinson's Library of Sport and Pastimes [no date]. --Mostly coursing and racing stuff. An oldie but a goodie. I find almost every Greyhound book by Clarke an interesting read. Another similar title was still in print and available through Canadian vendors a few years ago.

The Waterloo Cup 1922 - 1977 by H. Edwards Clarke. London: Spur Publications, Saiga Publishing Co, 1978. "Being a detailed account, year-by-year, of the Blue Riband of Coursing, the Waterloo cup."

Has a picture and pedigree of every year's winner.

The Waterloo Cup the First 150 Years by Charles Blanning and Sir Mark Prescott. Wonston: Heath House, 1987.

The Encyclopaedia of Greyhound Racing. A Complete History of the Sport by Roy Genders. London, Pelham Books, 1981.

Greyhounds by Roy Genders. London: W & G Foyle and Co, 1963.
Brief historical section, mostly a care and feeding sort of handbook.

For those of you interested in GH pedigrees there are two great books on the subject: Great Names in Greyhound Pedigrees Vol 1 ($25 paperback) and Great Names in Greyhound Pedigrees Vol 2 ($35 paperback). Volume 1 has over 50 chapters on GH like Tell You Why, Julius Caesar, Westy Whizzer and the Jones boys (Onie, Kelly and Demon). These names most likely appear in your dogs 4th, 5th and 6th generations.

Volume two covers the 80s: S.S. Jenó, Share Profit, Sandy Printer, Downing, Highway Robber, Rooster Cogburn, Mc's Grandmaster and his brother Dutchmaster, Big Whizzer, etc.

For information write:
Greyhound Publications 304 N.W. 17th
Abilene, KS 67410

"The Greyhound: Form Follows Function.", Mary Trubek, Education Chair of the GCA. A nice 28 page booklet with photos and drawings, explaining parts and pieces and movements of a Greyhound very nicely. If you'd like to have a copy, please send $4 to Mary Trubek, GCA Education Chairperson, 40 Fox Farm Road, Phillipsburg, NJ 08865.

The Greyhound by Helen Griffiths. Garden City: Doubleday, 1964. *Fiction* - written for kids, but I found it quite touching. Story of a boy and a Greyhound.

Reina the Galgo is another kids book featuring a Greyhound that was sort of interesting, but I don't have that one and thus can't provide a full citation.

"Sir Lancelot and Scamp" by Margaret S. Johnson and Helen Lossing Johnson, 1945, Harcourt, Brace and Company, Inc. It is a touching children's story about a greyhound and cocker spaniel.

"Jet, a Gift to the Family" by Geoffrey Kilner. This is a children's story about a family that adopts a pregnant greyhound, and the only pup becomes a successful racer.

"Blood Royal", by Rosemary Weir, Copyright 1973, ISBN 0-374-30845-4.

GENERAL DOG BOOKS:

I realized that you stressed ABOUT greyhounds but..... If you are interested in training in anyway (even manners) you should get a copy of "Don't Shoot the Dog!" by Karen Pryor. I cannot say enough about this book!! Karen is an animal trainer, most notable is her dolphin training experience which is completely positive. When you finish this book, you should be able to train a chicken or at least your roommate! It cost about $6.00 and is available in the self-help section of the bookstore. It really is a wonderful book! Try it!

Childproofing Your Dog-- by Brian Kilcommons. It's less than $10 in softcover. He gives concrete, useful advice. VERY worth getting.

"Vacationing with Your Pet!" by Eileen Barish. It has about 10,000 listings in it. We have found it helpful however, beware that some places that welcome pets may require a nightly deposit or additional charge of five to fifty dollars per pet. AAA has tourbooks for each state that have hotel/motel listings that clearly state whether or not pets are allowed, and if so, whether or not a deposit or additional charge is required.

Pets Are Permitted (5th Edition, 1995)

M.E. Nelson, Editor. Publisher - The Annenberg Communications Institute P.O. Box
3930 Torrance CA 90510-3930. 310-374-6246.

The book contains 10,000 Hotel, Motel, Kennels, & Petsitters throughout the USA where dogs & cats are considered cool. Also, 550 "five paw" places for "haute dogs" (read Greyhound??), and other generally useful information to keep pet and owner and proprietor happy.

"Take Your Pet USA" by Arthur Frank.

It's paperback and lists for $11.95. Even though you wouldn't need the hotel/motel listings if you were traveling in an RV, one good reason to consider getting the book anyway is that it lists the names, addresses, and telephone numbers for veterinarians throughout the country - could prove to be a handy reference in an emergency.

"A Dog Is Listening", Roger Caras. ISBN 0-671-79726-3. Former president of the ASPCA writes an entertaining and informative book about dogs.

"Dog Watching", Desmond Morris. ISBN 0-517-88055-5.

Anyone interested can find these books at the Direct Book Service at (800)776-2665 ask for their catalog.

- I'm a big fan of the "Waterloo" double layer wool coat from the Greyhound and Whippet Shop in London. It's soft, warm, water-resistant, easy to put on/take off, and reasonably priced. I just bought one for Kelly and it was 23 pounds, 50, including shipping to the US. I think that's about $40, but I haven't checked the exchange rate lately. Their phone is 081-527-7278 (I think the code for the UK from the US is 044, but check your phone book, as I'm not sure.) I've not seen anything comparable in the States to the Waterloo, even at $75+. They take VISA, and shipping usually takes only a week or so. They also have leather sighthound collars. Their brochure is text only.

- You can get custom Greyhound coats from Marge Penne at (405) 799-3653. She now lives in Oklahoma versus Waterloo. You can also purchase coats from Jacquie Schnepf at Waterloo REGAP. Her phone number is (319) 235-0842. The coats run about $60 and the proceeds go to REGAP.

- Hound Togs, Coats for Sighthounds, produces coats cut to closely fit the long, narrow, deep-chested Sighthounds, sized from tiny Italian Greyhounds, through Whippets and Greyhounds, up to and including Scottish Deerhounds. Light weight Home Coats, extra warm Outdoor Coats, bright Rain Slickers, all made of the best materials, fully guaranteed, in stock and ready to ship. Row 8: K1, p2, [BC, p1] twice, k2, p2, k1.

Repeat rows 1-8 for cable panel.

BODY

With larger needles, cast on 142 sts. Beg pats--Row 1 (WS): P1 (edge st: keep in stockinette st), work cable panel over 20 sts, [trinity st over 20 sts, capel panel over 20 sts] 3 times, p1 (edge st, keep in St st).

Continue in pattern established until piece measures 26 inches from beg or desire length. End with a WS row. (to determine size for your dog, measure from base of neck to base of tail).

NECK SHAPING

Work 50 sts, join 2nd skein of yarn and bind off center 42 sts, work to end. Working both sides at once, bind off from each neck edge 9 times, AT SAME TIME, inc 1 st at each outer edge (working inc sts into St st) ever 6th row 4 times --(36) sts each side. Work even until neck depth measures 7.5 inches or desired length, end with a wrong side row. NOTE: Try on sweater before reaching 7.5 inches: work longer if necessary to make front edges almost meet (1" or less).

Or, shorten front edges if necessary. Bind off 36 sts each side for front edge.

BELLY BAND:

With larger needles, cast on 28 sts. Begin pats -- Row 1: (WS) P2 (stockinette sts for edge), work trinity st over 24 sts, p2. Continue in pat as established until pieve measure 16 inches from beginning, or desired length. Bind off.

TRIM:

With RS facing, using smaller needles, pick up on all 3 edges of body (sides and cast-on edges), 4 sts for every 5 rows, 3 sts for every 4 cast-on sts. K1 row (WS), p1 row, bindoff knitwise on last row.

Work trim in the same way on 3 sides of belly band (two long sides and cast-on edge). Note: Use circular needle, or pick up along edges in three pieces and then sew together the ends. There are too many stitches to pick up in one piece as directed.

COLLAR:

Place marker 3 inches down from front edge bind-off on each inner neck edge. With RS facing and smaller needles, begin at right marker, pick up 89 sts evenly along neck edge to other marker. Next row: Work in K1, p1 rib over 42 sts, make 5 st buttonhole at center back neck (bind off 5 sts), rib to end. In next row, cast on 5 sts opposite bound off sts. Rib until collar measures 4 inches, then bind off. Work trim on remaining neck edge not covered by collar.

FRONT EDGE BUTTONBAND:

With RS facing and smaller needles pick up 35 sts evenly spaced along right front edge. Work in K1, p1 rib for 1 inch. Bind off in rib. Work same on other side, working 3 buttonholes, evenly spaced. Sew on buttons.

BELT:

Cast on 9 sts. Work in k1, p1 rib for 32 inches. Bind off. Sew center of belt to trimmed edge of belly band, along ridge formed by picked up sts. Sew untrimmed edge of belly band to the center of the bottom of the front extension, with the buttons closed. Sew D-rings on ends of belt, or use Velcro, or you can tie the belt if you prefer.

Note from Ginny to the knitters: I have variously folded over the collar and tacked it in place for a very preppie button-down look. I've also made the collar a lot longer and picked it up all the way around the neck edge, and then used Velcro to make a turtle neck, which can then be rolled down out of the way when not in use. Experienced knitters can adapt the collar once they see how it will turn out. The belly band is not connected to the body piece along the sides as this sweater is made. On two of them, I have used "buttons" of Velcro along the edges of the belly band and on the inside bottoms of the body piece to close the sweater up for truly inclement conditions. I also lined one sweater with fake sheepskin when it was finished, but I had to borrow a friend's industrial sewing machine to do a good job on it.

TOYS:

Kongs: An interesting consensus on the greyhound-l, is that Greyhounds seem to prefer the red colored Kongs over the other colors.

BOODA BRAND - VELVET BONE WARNING:

Thought I'd let you all know about my experience with the brand new Booda product called "Booda Velvets". These are bone-shaped dog chews that come in red, yellow and green, and are marked on the package as being "completely ingestible", and "safe". The ingredient listing is corn or maize starch and "inert ingredients" (= plastic). The chews are meant to be totally eaten by the dogs and can be dangerous.

MOVIES:

"Prospero's Books" by Peter Greenaway and starring Sir John Gielgud. There's supposed to be just a short scene in the movie where a pack of a dozen or so GHs are released to chase after something.

"Mrs. Brown You've Got a Lovely Daughter" starring Peter Noone from Herman's Hermits was about a greyhound owned by Noone's character and the quest to win the English Derby.

"Coupe de Ville" had a long sequence featuring a greyhound race, shot at Derby Lane in St.

Petersburg.

"Crackers" is an A&E mystery series on cable that chronicles a criminal psychiatrist that has a weakness for greyhound gambling.

"The Simpsons" have Santa's Little Helper <too many letters for an NGA name BTW, you only get 16 ...>

An episode of the old "Route 66" found the wandering Corvette dudes staying on a greyhound racing farm in Kansas or Oklahoma.

Linda Brown (Retired Racers - CA) has had her female GH Lita in one TV show - Empty Nest, and in one movie - (the soon to be released?) remake of The Little Princess.

A British movie called 'Orlando' (made in 1993, I think), it featured deerhounds, salukis and Afghan hounds.

'Robin Hood - Prince of Thieves' (starring Kevin Costner) featured bloodthirsty (don't make me laugh) deerhounds in the beginning.

Another British (?) film, 'The Adventures of Baron Munchausen', 1989, featured one sighthound which appeared to be a greyhound-deerhound mix.

There is a Disney film called 'Greta the Misfit Greyhound' which was made back in 1963, produced and directed by Larry Lansburg, about a racing GH not so keen on racing by man-made rules. Rather sad beginning but oh, so happy end, according to the best Disney tradition.

Another Disney movie called "Race for Survival" - it's packaged with a Disney feature called "Three on the Run" (about a dogsled competition) in the Disney Home Video series. "Race for Survival" is about a pilot hurt in a plane crash in Kenya and how he sends his GH, Smokey, out with an SOS message attached to his collar. The GH encounters all sorts of interesting experiences - meets up with and befriends an old lion, races from a cheetah, runs with some giraffes - really neat footage!

SunCoast Motion Pictures Company, owned by Musicland. (800)-477-7999 This video is listed as "Three On The Run", stock #5760293. $9.99 plus shipping.

The PBS series "All Creatures Great and Small" (based on the James Herriot stories) also reportedly show a greyhound occasionally in the veterinarian's home and one episode supposedly had the vet inspecting GHs at a track.

The 1993 or 1994 remake of "The Getaway" with Kim Basinger and Alec Baldwin (original movie was with Ali McGraw and Steve McQueen). It was filmed at the Tampa track (although was supposed to be set in Arizona) - the plot involves their attempt to rob a GH track.

GH BBS:

Still another AGC (American Greyhound Council, Inc) project, an electronic bulletin board service aimed at better facilitating the placement of retired Greyhounds as pets, is up and running at NGA headquarters in Abilene. Those active in any way in the Greyhound pet effort, including many NGA members, pet organizations, tracks, haulers, etc. are invited to participate by regularly receiving and/or sending information. Users can read, download, or upload files on the AGC BBS 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. One need only have access to a personal computer and modem to participate ... For example, if a racetrack or pet agency suddenly has a surplus of Greyhounds to place, it can solicit some assistance from other groups on the BBS - the industries own lane on the information superhighway. Need some Greyhounds for placement? Call the BBS. Need a hauler that transports pets to a certain area? Give the BBS a try. If you're a hauler and you have a couple of empty compartments that could be filled with retired Greyhounds (either going or on the way home), call the BBS. Have some tips on caring for Greyhounds? Want some help on building a kennel? Queries on veterinary advice? Want to relate a success story? New books being released? Contact the BBS. The possibilities are endless. Financed by the AGC, the BBS number is (913) 263-2266.

These info sheets are dedicated to the memory of Bob Brady Jr. (1954 - 1995) Bob was a long-time participant in the dog newsgroups and was a tireless defender of Greyhound rights. He loved, and was loved, by his four 'greykids', General Hampton, Miss Charlotte, Jennie Mae, and Blaze (a.k.a. Blaze Monster). Bobs wisdom and gentle wit will be missed by many of us whose lives he touched.

We miss you Bob, and we will keep up the fight for the Greyhounds...they do need us.
